Steven D. Blostein received his B.S. degree in Electrical Engineering from Cornell University, Ithaca, NY, in 1983, and the M.S. and Ph.D. degrees in Electrical and Computer Engineering from the University of Illinois, Urbana-Champaign, in 1985 and 1988, respectively. He has been on the Faculty at Queen's University since 1988 and currently holds the position of Associate Professor in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering. He has been a consultant to both industry and government in the areas of document image compression, motion estimation, and target tracking, and was a Visiting Associate Professor in the department of Electrical Engineering at McGill University in 1995. His current interests lie in statistical signal processing, wireless communications, video image communications, and image sequence-based target tracking. He is currently an Associate Editor of the IEEE Transactions on Image Processing.
