Broadband Wireless Access Network Architectures

Carl Eklund

Abstract of talk:

Several network architectures have been proposed for providing cost effectively broadband wireless access. The main architectures are presented and their applicability for various applications is discussed. The presentation will also touch on protocols relevant to BWA.